Know all men by these presents, I Kamehameha III, by the grace of God, Sovereign of the Hawaiian Islands, do hereby give, on this day of my own free will, relinquish and forever divide the majority of my crown lands for my chiefs and the people for the right and benefit of the Hawaiian Government; therefore, by this document, I hereby retain for myself, my heirs and agents forevermore, my lands as recorded on pages 178, 182, 184, 186, 190, 194, 200, 204, 206, 210, 212, 214, 216, 218, 220, 222 of this book. Those lands were divided for me and my heirs and agents forevermore; this is my own property, none else.

My name and seal is placed here at the Palace on this 8th day of March 1848

Know you, all men, by these presents I, Kamehameha III, by the grace of God, Sovereign of the Hawaiian Islands, do hereby give and convey and divide absolutely for the chiefs and people of my government, and relinquish all of my interests and my rights and all of my property within the lands, here within the Hawaiian Islands, written on pages 179, 181, 183, 185, 187, 189, 191, 193, 195, 197, 199, 201, 203, 205, 207, 209, 211, 213, 215, 217, 219, 221, 223, 225 of this book, in order that my chiefs and my people may dwell and establish forevermore.

The House of Nobles and the Representative of these lands, or the one that has been chosen to be Land agent for these lands by the people at any time [at that time and at this time], will care for the settlement and leasing or transference as decided by those in the Legislature, for the good of the kingdom and the honor of the Royal Crown.

My name and seal are written at the Palace on this 8th day of
